

Sinclair Broadcasting is abusing its license by forcing its affiliates to air the anti-Kerry documentary days before the presidential election. By choosing to ignore its obligation to serve the public interest and instead dedicate itself to partisan politics and smear campaigns it demonstrates why media ownership needs to be more carefully held accountable to the principles of democracy. Not the principles of corporate greed and propaganda.